

Patching the CustomerRedictUrl is optional. PSP either use this Url to communicate payment status to merchant frontend, or keep the Url neutral and offer a "GetPaymentStatus" endpoint for merchant to call after the redirect. If CustomerRedirectUrl is used to communicate payment status, it should be initialized with a "fail" url and then changed to a "succes" url in that case.